

JOURNAL OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

FEATURING

Non-adversarial approaches to criminal justice

Arie Freiberg

The Queensland Special Circumstances Court

Tamara Walsh

Enhancing communication with Australian and New Zealand juries:
A survey of judges

James RP Ogloff, Jonathan Clough and Jane Goodman-Delahunty

Therapeutic jurisprudence in courts: Some issues of practice and principle

Andrew Cannon

Editor

GREG J REINHARDT

JOURNAL OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

FEATURING

Judicial independence: Is there a difference between administrative independence and adjudicative independence?

Kristy Richardson

Improving debt collecting in courts

Andrew Cannon

Using alternative therapeutic intervention strategies to reduce the costs and anti-therapeutic effects of work stress and litigation

Michael King and Robert Guthrie

Mental health tribunals: "TJ" implications of weighing fairness, freedom, protection and treatment

Terry Carney, David Tait, Duncan Chappell and Fleur Beaupert

Key challenges in evaluating therapeutic jurisprudence initiatives

Lynne Roberts and David Indermaur

Editor

GREG J REINHARDT